We love hosting weddings!

It is the joy and privilege of the church to witness some of the happiest days of people's lives. Hands down, weddings and baptisms are our favorite! Whether you are a long-time member of the church family or are looking for a romantic place to have a destination ceremony, we would be delighted to open our doors for you.

In the following packet you will find information regarding our wedding policies, event fees, and usage guidelines. You are welcome to contact us at any time if you have questions.

Our Team

Minister: Pastor Sarah strives to craft a meaningful service that honors God and reflects your uniqueness as a couple. Therefore, she requires three premarital counseling sessions and a rehearsal prior to the wedding. However, you are welcome to secure the services of outside ministers or officiates for your wedding if you prefer.

Wedding Coordinator: To make your wedding day go as smooth as possible we have a wedding coordinator, Pat Gentry. She will contact you after your date is confirmed. She is available to you at the rehearsal, the wedding, and prior to your wedding for consultation and to coordinate any arrangements you have made with outside officiates, musicians, or vendors.

Custodian: Our custodial crew from All-In-One Cleaning will make sure the building is clean and tidy from your big day, as well as clean up afterward to make sure the space is Sunday ready. Any extraordinary setup or clean-up costs will be deducted from your security deposit before it is returned.

Sound System Technician: The church’s sound system includes a mid-sized sound board, CD, various microphones, and monitors. We can play your service music off of Spotify, or from your laptop or phone. It must be operated by one of our trained technicians.

The Rehearsal:

- A well-run rehearsal clarifies responsibilities and reduces stress. Therefore, it is expected that all of the following people will attend: the bride and groom and their attendants; the bride's parent(s) and the groom's parent(s); the ushers, soloist, organist or other musicians. If there are others who will participate, such as ring bearers, flower girls, candle lighters, etc., they should also attend the rehearsal.
- Bring your valid state marriage license with you to the rehearsal and give it to the minister.
- The minister will guide you through the ceremony. The wedding coordinator will be there as well to coordinate arrangements you have made for decorations.
- Pastor Sarah and Pat Gentry will lead the rehearsal time, if you are working with an addition Wedding Coordinator and would like their involvement please connect them with Pastor Sarah well beforehand.
- Assume one hour for the rehearsal.

The Wedding Day:

- All participants should arrive no less than one hour ahead of time. The building doors will be open two hours ahead of time.
- Flash photography is allowed only during the processional and the recessional. Non-flash photography is welcome any time. Videography is allowing along the side and in the rear of the sanctuary.
- Decorations and flowers are welcome, but choose fasteners that won't damage furniture. After the ceremony, arrange for flowers and decorations to be removed unless you have made previous arrangements with the wedding coordinator.
