

FCC of Saugatuck's Prayer Chain

The First Congregational Church Prayer Chain is made up of volunteers who have agreed to pray for any request that is made to their group. The group does not meet, but communicates by phone, or email, and then only to pass along the prayer requests. No matter who you call on the list, that person will include you in his/her prayers, and pass your needs on to the next person in the chain, who will also pray for you, and so on. All of the members of the chain observe strict confidentiality, so your situation will not be made public unless you authorize it.

Prayer Chain members once you receive the prayer request, please call the next person in the chain. If you receive an answering machine, you may either leave a message with the prayer request, or leave a call back number. Then call the next person in the list, until you receive a "live" person. This way you know the prayer chain will continue on. Last person in the chain please call the Church to complete the circle. Thank you.
